

TASTING NOTES

An elegant dram, whether neat, on the rocks, or in a cocktail. There's just a hint of the Scottish peat that carries its age-borne complexity to a smooth, calm finish, without dominating everything else or resulting in palate fatigue.

APPEARANCE

Rich, lustrous amber color.

NOSE

Honey and candied fruit, freshly-baked spice cake, hazelnut, round roasted malt body, faint notes of peat smoke.

PALATE

Rich vanilla flavor evolves into wood spices, baked apple and a gentle savory balance of smoke on the finish.
